NAMES COMMITTEE ON LIGHT PROBLEM

Commission Accedes to Request; Will Throw Light on Light Situation

The city commission paused long enough Saturday to take action on a request by representatives of the Young Men's Business Association in the matter of an investigation of the electric light situation in this city. The request, as it finally was considered by the commission proposed the appointment by the commission of a committee to arrange for bringing a competent expert to Phoenix to make a general study of the situation here to ascertain the cost of a municipal plant which would serve the entire city, to make a study of the plant and its cost and ascertain facts and ascertain its valuation on basis for rates and, in fact, to do anything that may inform the citizens of Phoenix regarding the matter of electric light and power.

The commission acceded to the request and invited the following committee: G. W. Barrows, chairman; J. W. Cook, M. T. Hickey, J. C. Adams, Dr. W. H. Ellis, H. E. Shrum, Dr. W. C. Chapman, Claude Cheney and Dr. V. H. Rodenfitt.

Most, if not all, the members of the committee are members of the Young Men's Business Association. One of them, speaking of the appointment yesterday said that it was not the purpose of the association to seek the immediate installation of a municipal plant but to ascertain facts with a view of submitting the question of putting a municipal plant to the people only as a last resort.

Now is the time to buy Red Cross Seals.

AMUSEMENTS

VULTURISH IS
ROB'T WARWICK

"The Flash of an Emerald" on Screen at Lion Today

Todays the Lion presents the very wife after Robert Warwick in a short picture "The Flash of an Emerald". Mr. Warwick is Lincoln Wallack in a study in complex villainy; he is informs polished, insinuating, amorous but above all vulturish. With one hand he would caress a woman with the other he would rob her of her jewels. He is "A Pair of Sixes," the sensational launching success at the Elks theater tonight, is thoroughly American in story, character and treatment, which means its fun and humor are unpaupered and swift. "There are no paupers—it is just one with unstrained continuity of fun." An exception must be made to the American characters and that is Coalhouse, an eccentric English housemaid. Coalhouse is in a class by herself. Oscar Figman heads the New York company to be seen here and the production will be under the management of A. H. Frazee.

Who is to blame, the child or the mother? Is the child born with a will power strong enough to build and develop character or is it destined to struggle through life burdened with a sin inherited from its parents? This is the subject ably handled in the Vitagraph transport drama released through the V. L. S. E. and stars Oscar Figman, the author of "The Wings of the Cabbage Patch."

"The Sins of the Mother" is the

New York Evening Sun's $1,000 prize film drama and is produced under the supervision of Albert E. Smith and J. Stuart Blackton.

This picture, with a great moral lesson will be shown for the last time tomorrow evening. The author of the story, Mrs. F. G. Smith, should say was the general opinion of the large crowd which witnessed its last showing for every one loves

Anita Stewart.

Redmonds Tomorrow Night

The Redmonds have given way this evening to the road attraction, "A Pair of Sixes" and commencing tomorrow evening they will open in the south west attraction, "Mrs.

Wings of the Cabbage Patch."

The entire acting force of the Redmond company will be seen in the tradition along with a number of extra players including a boy of children headed by Master Charles Metcalfe the three year old actor of the Redmond forces.

"Mrs. Wings of the Cabbage Patch" will be presented throughout the entire week with matines Wednesday,

Saturdays (Christmas Day) and Sunday afternoon.

Plaza Theater

The combination of a great picture of the life and adventures of the notorious Jessie James, the Missouri

Bandit King, with the Wright's Hawain dancers in Hula Hula dances made a great program for the Plaza theater yesterday. They could still see pictures of both Jessie James and the Wrights and the gypsies men their hands were, and how near the producers of the pictures come to making the men live again through the impersonations of the actors. In addition to the James Boys, there will be a splendid assortment of Universal pictures today also Annette Kellerman in "Neptune's Daughters" will be seen at the Plaza on Thursday and Friday.

Hibernians Invited

The Amuzo has invited the Hibernians to witness the screening of a tale of their mother country "All for Old Ireland" taken there by Sidney Olcott and a company of Lubin stars who sailed from this side and just finished the run again today and tomorrow.

Music by Four Piece Orchestra a society "culture" in every sense of the word. This is a new type for Mr. Warwick to portray. After his performance the audience has so delighted in some fine settings which include a view of the procession to the Shrine of Saint Anne de Beaute, in Canada, taken especially for this picture.

"The Flash of an Emerald" will be shown today and tomorrow and ladies attending the show tonight will receive a souvenir spoon of the State of New York.

IMPROVEMENTS AT COLISEUM

Schultz's Picnic Tonight's Offering by Stozum's Merrymakers

The Coliseum is now a real theater

A number of needed changes and repairs have been made during the past week, and the place now presents a cozy home-like appearance.

George Schultz and his company will be well-moved to their house from the "Columbia" continued to amuse the crowds this week, and to raise money for the show.

"Schultz's Picnic" full or good snap comedy. The latter part of the week an offering entitled "A Trip to Santa Claus Land" will be staged. A matine will be given Christmas day, so that all the young folk may have an opportunity to see the fun.
